May 25th 1918.

My dearest Mother,

Yours of Apr 24
and 29th and May 2nd arrived to-day with the letter from Mrs.

Wildberger and I

was very glad to get 'them', Oh

how your dear

letters are appreciated. Going to have a half.

holiday Monday
and Mr. Crummen
and I are going to ride away for the afternoon so
we can get away
from the booming
of the canoes.

Mother, I have to get off early
in the morning
so I will go to bed.

I appreciated all the letters also one from Rivers but haven't much time to discuss the main topics to-night

Much love

Daye,

Alfred Adams
